

LOCAL MATTERS.

Auction Sales This Day. O'Brien & Aymar will sell at No. 548 King-street, a lot of elegant furniture.

McKay & Campbell will sell at their Stores, Nos. 80 and 82 Hasel-street, mules, horses, wagons and harnesses; also, potatoes, onions, leaf tobacco and groceries.

General DeWitt will sell at northwest corner of King and Spring streets, a saddle and draft horse, mule, sulkey, &c.

Our enterprising friends of the Up-Town News Depot, Messrs. M. M. Quinn & Bro., have again placed us under obligations for a copy of the December number of Frank Leslie's Lady's Magazine and Gazette of Fashion.

Arrival of Lieut. Gen. Grant.—At 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon, Lieut. Gen. U. S. Grant, U. S. A., reached this city by the Northeastern Railroad train.

Gov. Pickens and Gen. Sherman will reach the city to-day by the South Carolina Railroad, and they will dine with Gen. Grant at the residence of Gen. Sickles.

General Sherman, December 1, 1865. Lieut. Gen. U. S. Grant, U. S. A. General Sherman, the undersigned, merchants and citizens of Charleston, desire the pleasure of your company to dinner, at the Charleston Hotel, at such time during your visit to the city, as will be most convenient to yourself.

Are they going?—We refer, reader, to your teeth. Be careful. Next to your eyes, your teeth are the most precious of your facial organs.

THE D. WAGNER, ARCHIBALD GETTY, E. W. MARSHALL, JAMES S. GIBBS, WM. BURNETT, CHAS. C. LEARY, GEO. W. CLARK, A. R. JHISCOLM.

Attack on the Highway.—A day or two ago, whilst several gentlemen were on a hunt about fifteen miles from this city, one of the party being accidentally separated from his companions, rode along leisurely, with his gun lying across the front of his saddle.

Washington Race Course.—The trotting match and race of to-day will, no doubt, prove very interesting, and will draw crowds to witness them.

Coroner's Inquest.—C. E. KANAUER, Magistrate, acting Coroner, held an inquest yesterday morning at No. 98 Coming street, on the body of Sarah Vinyard, colored girl, who seemed to her death from a gunshot wound in her head.

Fire Crackers.—We approve of keeping the Christmas holidays. Who does not? We approve of Christmas trees, of egg-nogg, of the Christmas turkey and ham, and that delicious old plum pudding, stuffed with raisins and citron.

Poor Old Horse.—We notice, with mingled feelings of indignation and disgust, that there are several two-legged beasts in this city, whose cruelty to four-legged beasts is carried to such an extent as to make it the duty of the City Council and the Mayor to raise their hands in defence of the "Poor Old Horse."

Bacon Strips, Shoulders, Hams, &c.—A large lot of these desirable meats, with other articles in the grocery line, are advertised by J. W. Brown & Co., at Nos. 136 and 138 Meeting-street.

Crocker at Reduced Prices.—Messrs. O'Mara & Prinston, at No. 80 Queen-street, between King and Meeting, advertise the arrival of a large quantity of granite ware crockery, which they offer at low prices.

Foot and Shoe Store.—Mr. A. Zoller, at No. 204 King-street, always keeps on hand a well selected stock of men's, ladies', misses', boys' and children's shoes and boots of all kinds, which he disposes of on very moderate terms.

Thaddeus Street has 500 sacks of coarse Liverpool salt for sale, as per advertisement.

We are glad to see that the Messrs. Wilbur & Son will offer for sale two cargoes of Earthenware and Crockery, imported direct from the Potteries of England.

The attention of our readers is directed to the card of GEORGE A. WALTER & SON, and WALTER & HEYWARD, in our issue of to-day. The forwarding agency business at this time is a matter of much responsibility, and should be entrusted only to persons of promptness and punctuality.

We desire reference to the card of MITCHELL & BOYLE, Forwarding and Commission Merchants, who are prepared to receive merchandise and cotton on either branch of South Carolina Railroad, and will follow each terminus respectively.

H. W. MITCHELL.—This gentleman having gone into the Custom House Brokerage and General Commission Agency, will attend to selling and renting of houses, &c., as per advertisement.

Commission Merchant.—Mr. R. M. BUTLER, late of BUTLER & BEE, having again entered into this business, can be found at the corner of Kerr's Wharf and East Bay. See his advertisement.

Pigs Hams, Sides, Shoulders and Bologna.—D. & J. CANTER, at No. 102 Market-street, have just received a fine supply of these articles, in addition to other groceries and luxuries, which the public had better examine, as they can be purchased at extremely moderate prices.

Bacon, Butter and Flour can be purchased by dealers, at reduced rates, by application to BERKARD O'NEILL, No. 189 East Bay.

Have you ever considered the annoyance you cause your friends, and the personal danger you risk by neglecting what is slightly called "only a cold?" Bear in mind the fact that by not attending to it, you predispose yourself to consumption, as well as other bronchial diseases.

Are they going?—We refer, reader, to your teeth. Be careful. Next to your eyes, your teeth are the most precious of your facial organs.
